Friday, November 4, 1881.

THE ENGLISH dress-coat is universally accepted as the noblest work of man, and yet an artist of that country duringly decribes it as-an unspeakable piece of

SEVERAL PROPLE in several places are asking two very simple questions. The first is: "What do bank directors direct?"

THE TEMPERANCE WOMEN feel that they did not call their convention too soon, as a Methodist pastor of Sacramento and a Catholic priest of Milwaukee have been arrested for drunkenness in public.

SHE MIGHT have known it would get her into trouble. Alfonso says he intends to call on Queen Vie. to thank her for the This is the first chance Victoria has had for a long time to spend some money

Ex-Governor Hendricks has broken out again in a lengthy article on the big noderate advance of £1 only. The explana tion is that a pawnbroker's safe is a very safe place for stolen notes.

to anything, provided it is non-committal enough to suit his reputation. We observe the faint outlines of a family fight.

THAT GREAT BORE the Channel tunnel s slowly pushing its way. Starting from both sides, it is computed that about one tenth of the distance is already completed. Mrs. Malaprop, who originally endeavored to sweep out the ocean with her broom, is a little disturbed at the thought that the Frenchmen can come over dry shod, but is comforted by the reflection that in case of the worst, the Channel can be let in to drown them out.

IN DEFIANCE OF precedent, pub-lic sympathy will side with the motherindaw in a case in Iowa. Her husband has just cloped with the seven years' wife of their own son. The errant and erring pair absconded with plenty of money and left their respective households impecunions. The feelings of the elder woman will not be soothed by the fact that the younger one was formerly adjudged the prize beauty of the county COLLECTOR PATTERSON has seized at the of Paine and Voltaire. He admits that the law will not sustain him, but asks for the approval and aid of all good citizens in thus ting in the interest of public morality. As a natural result, sundry good citizens have subscribed the money to help the importer in carrying his case through the courts, and the reading public has, in consequence, been seized with an ardent craying for the "Age of Reason." It will probably invite Col. Ingersoll to deliver a course of lectures upon Voltaire.

ONE OF THE BERLIN PAPERS contains the following >

A young lady of noble family, as lovely as Helen, thrifty as Penelope, witty as Madame de Stael, seeks a husband. As a singer she rivals Jenny Lind, as a dancer Cerito, as a scaiptor the Princess Marie d'Orleans. She is virtuous as Lucretia and any gentleman seeking her hand can correspond through this paper.

Possibly this paragon will find out before long that she omitted the most important clause. In order to put up, year in and year out, with so much talent, it would be desirable to know how many times she cuts

OUR PRIEND of the Augusta Chronicle finds out that "Gambetta is following in the track of Rienzi and may finally share as dark a doom. A Republican in politics, he is more than an aristocrat in tastes. Luxury girdles him about, and his stomach is getting the better of his brains. He bathes in a solid silver tub, and has at heart no sympathy with the poor." If this be so, Gambetta certainly is in a bad way. Gentlemen in public life over in France should be very careful how they bathe. A politician by the name of Marat undertook to indulge in a bath-tub, and Miss Corday at once came along and presented her regards on the point of a rapier. The very fact that Gambetta bathes is enough to prove that he has no sympathy with the Paris poor.

THE Indianapolis Journal seems to think that "the country will be gratified to know that Gov. Murray, of Utah, has been sus tained by Chief Justice Hunter in with holding a certificate of election from Cannon as delegate from that Territory to the Congress of the United States. It appears that Cannon never was naturalized—that he is 150 Ladies' and Children's Jackets, at $1. vet an alien. This will suffice to keep out of Congress a representative and advocate of polygamy, one who defles openly all law and civilization, and flouts in the face of the country the sentiment he seeks to repre

Instead of concentrating all his wrath on the head of Cannon as the type of a horrible social abomination, perhaps the able editor might serve his country just as well if he tried to repeal the law which recognises Utah as one of the Territories of the United States. If Cannon is an alien let him be counted out; but so long as the President appoints territorial judges and marshals and secretaries for Utah, that Territory can't be denied the right of represontation. The fault is in existing laws.

THE GREAT editor of the New York Evening Post has found congenial occupation in analyzing the mental processes of Sitting Bull, who seems to have recently boomed himself. Mr. Bull remarks that "he has always had a reason for everything he has done," and that "every act of his life has had an object in view," and that "no man can say he has neglected to think "-a charge which is brought with great success against white men nearly every day. He makes one other assertion which very few of us would venture on, viz., that " if he had no place in the world he would not be here," and that " the fact of his existence entitles him to the exercise of whatever influence he possesses." Mr. Bull is also of the opinion that he was "created for a purpose." This last remark is what makes the hair of Carl Schurz stand up like porcupine quills. He goes so far in his strictures as to intimate that great numbers of men ought to be puzzled, as their friends are, to know why they were made. Carl The second is: "What do boards of man- and Mr. Bull might consult together and let us know the result. The public is interested in the enigma.

The Connecticut Oyster Beds.

The connectation of the control of t men he knew in the Senate. We may be mistaken, but the symptoms indicate just at present that Thomas A. may land on the lecture platform.

As the White House seems to be the objective point of all the fools and lunatics in the country, it would be well for Mr. Arthur to continue boarding with Mr. Jones, and surrender his official residence to the tramps and cranks. In their struggle for supremacy they would convert the White House grounds into a grand gindlatorial arena, and furnish amusement to office-which had been pledged on the remarkably Quite Enough of MacVengh.

OUT IN INDIANA they are trying to learn who represents the Democrats on the tariff. McDonald is a notorious free-trader, Voorhees has just come out for protection, while Hendricks is ready to sign his name to anything provided it is non-representation.

Crime in Maine. Lewiston (Mc.) Journal.

Statistics show that there is less crime to day in Maine than in any other State in the Union. The number of State prison convicts in Maine is one to every 3,200 population; in New Hampshire, one to 1,500; in Vermont, one to 1,800; in Massachusetts, one to 2,200; in Connecticut, one to 2,100, and in New York, one to 1,400.

Fenriul Indiscretion.

President Arthur seems to be wise enough, but lamentably indiscreet. It is said that he asked Calleo Foster to call again. That was a concession to the thing called courtesy which will spread its punishment over the full period of his occupancy of the Presidential office.

A patent medicine firm offers the Lynn post-office $3,000 a month for the privilege of affixing a stamp, indicating its business, on every letter sent out from the office. The idea is really neat. Wedding invitations or letters sent to sick friends with patent medicine stamps attached would be excruciatingly lovely.

An Important Distinction. A couple of lawyers engaged in a case were recently discussing the issue. "At all events," said the younger and more enthusiastic, "we have justice on our side." To which the older and warier replied, "Quite true; but what we want is the Chief Justice on our side."

Painful in the Extreme

The persistent silence of the Hon. William K. Rogers, late manager of the Hayes reform administration, (including John Sherman and his Louisinna witnesses) has created the saddest vacuum ever known in politics.

"Are We so Soon Forgot."

Courier-Journal.

The subscriptions for the Garfield Memorial Hospital are at a standstill. The people do not come up with funds, and the project has a very limited prospect for success.

Still on Deck.

Attanta Constitution.

Hannibal Hamilin has had 49 years of continual pulling at the public teat, and still holds on to that facted duct. At 72 years of age the old man is as keen for a fat office as he was half a contury ago.

Exhausted the Limit.

"Mary says you can't come to see her any more," said a boy to his sister's admirer "Why not?" "Hecause you come to se her every night now, and how could you come any more?" The Cold Sunp is Upon Us.
